

PROMINENT MAN DROWNED

Boat Overturns and Mr. Robin H. White Meets Death in Flag Pond Near Salt Lick.

Possibly no death in years has caused the universal sorrow and regret among all classes of people as the tragic death of Mr. Robin H. White, which occurred at Flag Pond near Salt Lick, Bath county, last Wednesday morning. Mr. White, accompanied by Dr. C. W. Compton and a negro cook, Simon Brakes, were camping near Flag Pond for a few days fishing. Early Wednesday morning they got ready to raise a hoop net that had been set in the pond when the colored man lost his balance and fell from the boat, overturning it. Neither Mr. White or Dr. Compton could swim, however Dr. Compton managed to catch hold of the boat but Mr. White could neither reach the boat or land and was drowned. The negro swam ashore and secured help and Dr. Compton was rescued and Mr. White's body recovered.

"Bob" as he was familiarly called by a legion of friends, was one of the most popular men that ever lived in this city. He took a great interest in all public affairs and always gave liberally of his time and means to any enterprise started for the public good. He was the first Scout Master for the Boy Scouts in this city and at the time of his death was Secretary of the Health and Welfare League, was a member of the Elks and Masonic lodges and also a member of the State Board of Pharmacy. At the time of his death he was forty-three years of age. He had been in the drug business here for a number of years.

Of a kind and sympathetic nature the poor and needy always found in him a friend ready to hear their story of sorrow and sickness and willing to help them not only with words of cheer and comfort but with medicine for their ills and money or supplies for their other needs. It is sad indeed to see one so well equipped for life to be so unexpectedly taken, but God in His infinite wisdom knows best and while it is hard for us to understand, still we bow in humble submission to His will.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Albin B. White and two brothers, Mr. W. B. White, of this city, and Assistant State Treasurer J. Lawrence White, of Frankfort. To the bereaved and stricken family we tender our deepest sympathy.

Funeral services were conducted at his mother's home on East Main street Thursday afternoon at two o'clock by Rev. Clyde Darsie, assisted by Rev. M. V. P. Yennan. The Elks and Mason lodges attended in a body. Burial in Maehpelah cemetery.

Mr. Little is one of the most energetic and progressive farmers and stockmen in this county and has many friends who will regret to see him leave the county.

COUNTY NOT RAISED

The State Board of Equalization decided not to raise Montgomery county this year, after it was shown that in 1913 we were raised six per cent; in 1914 six per cent; in 1915 five per cent, and in 1916 ten per cent, making twenty-seven per cent in the past four years. This does not include increases made by the local Board of Assessment. Montgomery county, it was also shown the Board, is assessed higher for taxation than any county in the State, in proportion. The county was represented before the Board by Messrs. W. O. Chenault, L. R. Douglas and W. F. Horton.

SELECTIVE CONSCRIPTION

Government's Plan to Conscript Young Men Outlined by the War Department.

An official outline of the method by which military registration is to be carried out under the selective conscription bill was made public Saturday, with an appeal from the War Department for the voluntary services of state election and other officials in order that there will be no delay in enrolling and classifying millions of men for army duty. Careful preparation has been made to place the whole task in the hands of civilian officials of the states and to remove every suggestion of military force in putting the measure into effect. The only function of the Federal Government will be supervision through the office of the Provost Marshal General. The department's statement follows:

There was a time in the country's history when military enumerators, backed by bayonet, went out among the people to take a compulsory service census. Today, under the principle of universal liability to service, the execution of the law is put into the hands of the people.

Everyone Must Register

The approval of the new national army bill and the President's proclamation thereunder will be coincident. All persons within the age limits prescribed will be required to present themselves for registration at the customary voting places in the voting precincts in which they have their permanent homes on a day which the President will announce. The probability is that from 10 to 15 days will elapse between approval of the bill and registration day.

The Governor of each state will be the chief of registration therein. The machinery of registration in each county is to be in charge of the Sheriff, the County Clerk and the County Physician, netting ex officio, unless a different board shall be announced by the Governor. In cities containing populations of more than 30,000, the registration will be under the control of the Mayor and selected boards of registration. In order that the designated county and city officials, and the people generally, can get a clear understanding of the census methods, the following brief outline is given:

The Sheriff or other designated officials, immediately upon receipt

PRODUCTION OR DESTRUCTION

Amidst the excitement on these days it will be well if we give attention to the voice of wisdom.

Patriotism is one of the greatest virtues. But patriotism is not always armed with a rifle, neither is its possessor always a target for a bullet. That this is peculiarly the case just at this time is brought forcibly to our minds when we begin to soberly study our condition.

When a state of war was declared by Congress this country was already facing exorbitant food prices, and on top of that comes the discouraging prediction of a fifty million bushel shortage in the 1917 wheat crop. We are also threatened with a shortage in the potato crop, due to the almost prohibitive price of the seed.

Again, bear in mind that it is the purpose to lend every possible support to the allies, and if this policy is followed there will be very little falling off in exports.

President Wilson has said that he does not want to disturb the industries where it can possibly be avoided. Nevertheless, enlistments are sure to disturb them to a considerable extent, especially the agricultural interests, from which field recruits are always largely drawn in warfare.

Hence the importance of the food problem looms even greater than that of fighting and the man behind the plow is destined to be as great a patriot as the man behind the gun.

Thousands of farmers in this country have for years followed a policy of limiting production. This has come about gradually and from various causes. The scarcity of help was one cause, but the greatest has been the low prices heretofore prevailing for farm products. The latter, however, is at an end, and the policy of curtailment should be abandoned. In fact, our plain duty now is to provide food for the nation, as this is the foundation of all preparedness. Men and guns are powerless without it.

Spring planting is just opening up over much of the country, and the truth should be forcibly driven home to every person who owns a portion of the soil that it is his bounden duty in this emergency to make that soil produce to the limit of its capacity. The Almighty has blessed us with a fair land and a wonderfully productive one. We are facing a struggle that may tax our resources and our strength to the utmost. We will be criminally negligent if we relax in the least our efforts in food production.

And this applies to others besides the farmer and the gardener. The bankers and merchants, business men of all lines, by standing shoulder to shoulder with the actual tillers of the soil, lending their help in whatever way it is needed, can advance the cause wonderfully. Many farmers, especially the smaller ones and the renters, will need assistance. This should be forthcoming—not primarily for the sake of the individual, but that he may be a unit in swelling our national production.

Let us all bear in mind that in the eventful year of 1917 PRODUCTION will be as truly patriotic as DESTRUCTION.

The man behind the plow will be as truly the savior of his country as the man behind the gun.

Our duty calls to us in clarion tones. Let us face it without an instant of hesitation.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC ROADS

(Road Building As An Engineering Problem, By R. E. Toombs, U. S. Senior Highway Engineer, Office of Public Roads and Rural Engineering, Washington, D. C.)

Until comparatively recent years the majority of the general public believed that road building required only the exercise of common sense and that the money spent on engineering was wasted. The engineer himself was considered a necessary evil whose advice was tolerated but very seldom followed.

The change in the character and volume of traffic occasioned by the addition of the automobile as an agency of transportation caused such rapid deterioration of our roads that the public gradually began to realize that the building of roads to withstand the effects of different kinds of traffic under different conditions required knowledge and information which the average man did not possess. With this awakening of the public mind came a keener sense of appreciation of the work of the engineer and a more general reliance upon him to solve the many new problems of road building.

Officials in charge of road building should be capable of seeing:—

FIRST: That the road is located in the right place so that it may be traversed between any two given points with a minimum expenditure of effort. This implies that the grade be as nearly level as possible, compatible with proper drainage. Our railroads have been expending millions of dollars in straightening shortening their lines and reducing grades so as to increase the tonnage that can be hauled by their locomotives. This principle should also apply in road building so that there will be no future demand for revision or relocation after settlement. Along the road has become established. Where this has not been done future settlement invariably precludes the possibility of any changes so that a tremendous amount of energy is being wasted in traveling improperly located roads, to say nothing of the impaired efficiency.

SECOND: That it is graded properly. Economy of construction demands that the desired grade and width of roadway be obtained with the least possible movement of earth or excavated material. Any excess movement of material by reason of a poor distribution of excavated material represents absolute waste.

THIRD: That it is thoroughly drained. A thorough knowledge of the behavior of all the different soils under varying weather conditions, together with a knowledge of the geological formation is necessary in order to determine whether those sections can be remedied by the use of some form of specially constructed foundation.

FOURTH: That it is surfaced with material adapted to its traffic. This requires an intensive study of the volume and character of the traffic coupled with a familiarity with all the different kinds of road surfacing material and the economic limitations to the use of each. The character and availability of all local surfacing material should be determined before deciding that material should be shipped in from other points.

FIFTH: That culverts and bridges are of the right size, in the right place, and built of suitable material. With the exception of very small culverts it is almost universally recognized that the location, design and construction of large culverts and bridges requires the services of an engineer. Misapplied information or ignorance is responsible for many monstrosities in small culvert construction that would be avoided by an engineer.

SIXTH: That an economical method of maintaining the road is put into force. Road construction represents an investment of community wealth. The safe-guarding

Make Us Responsible For Your Tires

You don't have to "shop" among tire dealers to get the exact tire you want,

—nor buy one make of tire for your rear wheels and another make for your front wheels;

—but you can get exactly the tires which will give you the lowest-cost-per-mile of service among the five different types of United States Tires.

And then you can hold one company—the United States Tire Company—responsible for the result, —which is much simpler than trying to fix the responsibility on two tire companies through two different dealers.

There are five to choose from,

—one for every need of price and use, of that wealth requires maintenance. Economic maintenance requires that the work be conducted by officials who have knowledge and experience regarding the work so that unnecessary experiments may be avoided.

—and every one a tire of supreme service and low-mileage-cost.

SEVENTH: That an effective organization for the work is secured. This requires the proper distribution and co-ordination of the working forces and in addition thereto a thorough knowledge of the cost, limitations, upkeep and life of all road building machinery on the market. If the work is to be done by contract a knowledge of what each particular part of the work should cost is essential in determining whether reasonable bids have been secured or not.

C. B. WADE DIES

Mr. C. B. Wade died at his home on Locust street in this city last Tuesday of heart trouble, after a brief illness. Mr. Wade was fifty-seven years of age and came to this city several months ago from Litchfield, Ill., where he had been engaged in the railroad business for many years. He purchased a small farm near Spencer, which he managed while maintaining his home in the city. His wife and two step-children survive. The body was taken to his old home at Litchfield Wednesday for burial after brief services at the residence by Rev. E. L. Southgate.

At Last—A One-Adjustment Cream Separator

BEFORE you buy any cream separator, come in and look at the Primrose. One adjustment is all that is necessary to keep it in perfect operating condition at all times. This adjustment is a simple one for keeping the bowl at the correct height—an adjustment that you or your wife can safely make, whenever it's necessary. The adjustment is made from the outside of the separator by either raising or lowering the bearing containing the hardened steel point, upon which the spindle revolves. A slight turn with a screwdriver, perhaps once a year, does the work. The Primrose is a well-constructed, close-kimring, durable cream separator. It will make a saving of $10.00 to $15.00 per cow in your herd every year. It is made in four sizes to separate 350 to 850 pounds of milk per hour, or from about 40 to 98 gallons. Ask for a catalogue giving a complete description, or, come in and look over the Primrose yourself.

MR. CHAS. F. RINGO

Mr. Chas. F. Ringo, of whom the above is a likeness, authorizes us to acquaint the voters of the Ninetieth Legislative District, composed of the counties of Montgomery and Menefee, with the fact that he has an ambition to serve them in the lower House of the General Assembly and, being a life-long Democrat, will ask this honor at the hands of his party, at the coming primary, August 4th, next.

Under the rule existing between the counties, it is Menefee county's time to furnish the nominee. Mr. Ringo is 39 years old, a teacher and farmer and for six years was chief deputy Sheriff of his county. For the past twelve years he has been a member of the County Board of Examiners for teachers certificates. He is a member of the Christian church and a teacher of the Bible Class at Cornwell.

The writer is not well acquainted with Mr. Ringo, but those who do know him have informed us that he is a clean, high-grade gentleman and thoroughly qualified to discharge the duties of the office he seeks, with credit to himself and the district.

He authorizes us to say that all his life he has opposed the manufacture and sale of whiskey by law or otherwise and if elected will use his best efforts in the suppression of the liquor traffic in every form.

He also authorizes us to say that upon all questions arising before the Legislature, if elected, he will follow that course of action that will best reflect the thought and sentiment of the people of his district.

We therefore ask for his claims, at the hands of his fellow-Democrats, their careful consideration.

MUCH SUGAR WASTED

According to the American Sugar Bulletin there is wasted daily in the United States 100,000 pounds of sugar daily. They explain the waste in this manner: "Probably half of those who use it in tea, coffee or cocoa put more in the cup than is stirred into the drink and we find a coating of undissolved sugar in the bottom of the cups." With sugar prices going higher this waste should be eliminated. Think what this would mean, a saving of 100,000 pounds daily. Here is an opportunity for the housekeeper to do "her bit."

ing notice from the Governor, shall appoint registrars from each voting precinct.

The proportion of registrars shall be one for each 170 persons to be registered. Each age to be registered will comprise about 1 per cent of the population.

If, for instance, all men between 19 and 25 years of age, inclusive, are to be registered, the registrar would have to enroll about 7 per cent of the precinct population.

It is desirable to accept the services of competent volunteer registrars to serve without compensation. All registrars must be sworn.

The voting place in each precinct must be prepared for registration. Full printed instructions covering every detail of registration will be in the hands of Sheriffs and Mayors on the fifth day after the President's proclamation.

The Mayor of a city containing more than 30,000 inhabitants, or the officials designated by the Governor therein, shall, with approval of the Governor, appoint for each ward or convenient minor subdivision containing about 30,000 people one Registration Board, and shall designate one officer of each board to perform duties similar to those imposed on the Sheriff, as heretofore outlined. If the Mayor desires he may appoint a central board to co-ordinate the work of minor boards.

On the fifth day after the President has issued his proclamation Clerks of counties and cities of over 30,000 must secure a supply of blanks and copies of the registration regulations from the Sheriff or from the Mayor. Absentees and the sick will apply to such Clerks to have their registration cards filled out. In no case shall such persons be given registration certificates. They are to be instructed by the clerk that the burden is on them to see to it that the cards reach the registrars of their home precinct by registration day.

Mail May Be Used

Persons absent from their home counties may be registered by mail. If so absent, a man should go to the Clerk of the county where he may be staying on the sixth day after the date of the President's proclamation. If he is in a city of over 30,000 population, the City Clerk is the official to whom to apply. The absentee will be told how to register, but he must mail his card in time to reach his precinct by registration day.

Persons too sick to present themselves for registration must send a competent person to the County or City Clerk on the sixth day after the date of the proclamation. The Clerk will give instructions for registration.

Officials of educational, charitable and other institutions should apply for instructions to the County or City Clerk on the sixth day after the date of the proclamation for instructions as to a convenient method of registration.

The wardens of jails, penitentiaries and reformatories should apply to the County or City Clerk for instructions on the sixth day.

Five days after the date of the President's proclamation complete regulations will be in the hands of all Sheriffs and of the officials of cities of over 30,000 population. The President is authorized to call upon all public officers to assist in the execution of the law. The plan is, however, to rely on the people for the proper execution of the law. It is expected that patriotic citizens will offer their services free as registrars. Such services will be gratefully acknowledged. Volunteers for this service should communicate immediately with the proper officials.

The pupils in both classes showed careful training and expert handling and rendered their numbers in a way that reflected credit on themselves as well as on their teacher. This was Mrs. Burbridge's first public recital and as it was such a pronounced success, music lovers hope she will make the public recitals a regular part of her work.

Exercises will open at 9 o'clock Sunday morning, May 13, and continue until the close of the evening sermon, to be preached by the Rev. E. H. Doak, of Wilmore, pastor of Dr. Guerrant's home church, in the town to which Dr. Guerrant was going at the time of his death.

ACTION OF THE STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

The State Board of Education, convinced of the imperative need of husbanding all the resources of the Commonwealth, especially that of labor on the farm and in the garden, urges upon the teachers, school officials and the great army of pupils who have talent or capacity for services of any type, the patriotic duty of making their contribution in this hour of National Need. Since Kentucky is an agricultural State and there is scarcity of help on the farms and since the school code provides that directors and teachers may excuse the absence of pupils for urgent reasons, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, That in the opinion of the State Board of Education during the present crisis the need is imperative that every one without stint render some service for the Commonwealth and Nation.

That teachers and trustees organize every school district into an efficient force to aid in every possible way the Nation in its fight for righteousness and humanity.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the pupils in the public schools above the age of twelve years, whose standing is such that there would be no question of their promotion or graduation and who may be regularly engaged in agriculture, shall have these facts considered in lieu of the full completion of the term's work. This provision to apply only to the work of the term ending June, 1917.

Teachers, pupils, trustees and all school officials are urged not only by precept but by example, to develop in their districts the highest degree of patriotism, so that every one may be impelled to do his bit in this time of great stress, from enlisting to go to the front, to necessary service of raising food products to sustain not only our army but the population that must needs remain at home, thus enabling Kentucky to maintain the proud position in the Nation of being second to none in the discharge of her patriotic duty.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the State Board of Education, through its proper officers, conduct a careful survey of the industrial and agricultural schools of the State for the purpose of ascertaining in what way they may contribute most efficiently through their equipment machinery and products during the continuance of the present war.

H. Marion, Secretary of Board.
V. O. Gilbert, Chairman
M. M. Logan, Attorney Gen.
James P. Lewis, Secy. of State

There is one patriotic thing we can all do. That is to buy at home and keep our money in circulation at home as much as possible. And the local dealer can demonstrate his own patriotism by keeping his prices down as much as possible. Every little helps—both ways.

We suggest that congress adopt the skirt as the symbol of the army. The women are offering their services more rapidly than the men.

COUNCIL ORDERS MORE STREET IMPROVEMENT

The City Council met in regular session last week. A contract was awarded to James Richards to reconstruct East High street from Queen to the Owingsville pike in macadam. A committee was appointed to confer with the Carey-Reed Company for the extension of the paving work, the Council having in view the paving of East and West Locust street and possibly the paving of other thoroughfares while the construction company is here. Aside from allowing the regular claims, etc., little other business of importance was transacted.

MT. STERLING ASTONISHED BY MERCHANT'S STORY

A merchant relates the following: "For years I could not sleep without turning every hour. Whatever I ate caused gas and sourness. Also had stomach catarrh. ONE SPOONFUL buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-ika relieved me INSTANTLY." Because Adler-ika flushes the ENTIRE alimentary tract it relieves ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas and prevents appendicitis. It has QUICKEST action of anything we ever sold. W. S. Lloyd, Druggist.

A farmer hitched up to his old wagon the other day and brought a load of twenty-five bushels of potatoes to town. He traded his load for a new wagon, sold his old one to a second hand dealer for twenty dollars (more than the potatoes cost him to raise) and left for home wearing a smile visible from the rear. A FAMILY MEDICINE

In Her Mother's Home, Says This
Georgia Lady, Regarding Black-
Draught. Relief From Headache, Malaria, Chills, Etc.

Ringgold, Ga.—Mrs. Chas. Gaston, of this place, writes: "I am a user of Theford's Black-Draught; in fact, it was one of our family medicines. Also in my mother's home, when I was a child. When any of us children complained of headache, usually caused by constipation, she gave us a dose of Black-Draught, which would rectify the trouble. Often in the Spring, we would have malaria and chills, or troubles of this kind, we would take Black-Draught pretty regular until the liver acted well, and we would soon be up and around again. We would not be without it, for it certainly has saved us lots of doctor bills. Just a dose of Black-Draught when not so well saves a lot of days in bed."

Theford's Black-Draught has been in use for many years in the treatment of stomach, liver and bowel troubles, and the popularity which it now enjoys is proof of its merit.

If your liver is not doing its duty, you will suffer from such disagreeable symptoms as headache, biliousness, constipation, indigestion, etc., and unless something is done, serious trouble may result.

Theford's Black-Draught has been found a valuable remedy for these troubles. It is purely vegetable, and acts in a prompt and natural way, regulating the liver to its proper functions and cleansing the bowels of impurities. Try it. Insist on Theford's, the original and genuine. E 79

THE PENALTY OF GREED

In these trying hours there may arise a few who will try to get rich quick at the expense of the nation and its people. But it will be neither profitable or wise for them to attempt anything of the kind.

If their business is national in its scope, the government will handle them without gloves. The President has so warned them.

If their business is local in its character, we, the people, will see that they get their just deserts.

There must be no price boosting, no gouging, no angling for sudden wealth for the few at the expense of misery for the many.

The man who can not be a patriot from choice must have it thrust upon him from necessity.

The people are mighty and their will must prevail. It must be a period of loyalty and live and let live.

STERLING CHIEF 2079

In offering the services of Sterling Chief to the public, I do so with the belief that rarely, indeed, is so good a horse offered at such a reasonable fee. He has the breeding, the individuality and has proven his ability to produce colts of the highest class.

ANCESTRY

Sterling Chief 2079, is by Bourbon Chief 976, whose standing and achievements in the saddle horse world are so well known that it is not necessary to dwell upon it here. First dam is by Forest Denmark 153, who sired fifty-two colts that sold for an average of $850. Probably no horse in saddle horse history has turned out more high-class horses. Second dam was by Blue Jeans 3. This second dam was a full sister to Rosee who sired, during three years in this country, 3 colts that sold for an average of $1250. He himself, sold for $1800.

WHAT HE IS

Color a rich dark chestnut, two white feet and star, 45.3% hands high, weight 1150 pounds. A horse of size and substance. Has best of bone and foot. Motion is absolutely true and straight and I have never had him in company with horse or mare that could throw dust in his face. Action is perfectly balanced in slow gait, walk, trot, rack and canter. Disposition could not be better. Is a perfect natural tailed horse, this feature of importance to breeders, has never been worked upon in any way, and he imparts it along with his other good traits to his offspring. He has the finish, type and conformation that a stock horse should have.

HIS PRODUCE

He is the sire of Thornton Chief that sold under the hammer recently for $1500, he being the sire of the famous mare Eloise Thornton, winner of first premium in $600 Pacific Coast Gaited Saddle Horse Futurity at Panama Pacific Exposition. This same mare won first premium in weanling form in Missouri Saddle Horse Futurity, Missouri State Fair. Thornton Chief won first premium in champion saddle class at Springfield. Sterling Chief is the sire of Pierpont, winner of first premium which was $1000, in the most important class at the First International Live Stock Exposition, held at Havana, Cuba. Pierpont sold for $1000 thus paying for himself at one show.

Sterling Chief is the sire of Sterling Duke, the gelding that sold for $2500; winner of first premium at Springfield, O., Horse Show, also first at Rochester Industrial Exposition. Sterling Chief is the sire of Angelus Butterfly, (Bob Lloyd mare) winner of first premium State Fair Stakes at California State Fair. Sterling Chief is the sire of Greenblair Lady, winner of Sweepstake Gaited Class, also Fine Harness Class at Fairfield, Iowa. He is the sire of Royal Chief Denmark that sold for $1000; of W. C. P. that sold for $1000; Sterling Bourbon the gelding that sold for $1300; the Turkey gelding that sold for $1200; the mare Lola, that sold for $300; Tobacco that sold for $500 as a weanling, etc.

His colts make excellent business horses, having intelligence, being easily trained and taking to the gait rapidly.

ORGANIZE FOR ATHLETICS

At the recent meeting of the Kentucky Educational Association in Louisville, Supt. W. O. Hopper, Chairman of the Committee, appointed a year ago, presented a plan, whereby all of the standard high schools in this State will form an athletic association.

The purpose of the movement is the development and purification of all athletic activities which are usually found in secondary schools. Recognizing the evils of the so-called "Ringer system," the school men determined to take steps to eradicate it. A permanent organization was formed with M. E. Ligon, of Lexington High School, President; W. O. Hopper, of this city, Vice-President, and J. H. Way, of Carrollton, Secretary. The officers constitute the Executive Committee and will draft the constitution, eligibility, rules, etc.

The members of the association are enthusiastic over the prospects for clean athletics and intend to push the matter to a successful end.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

A Young Man's Greatest Asset

Girls would you be happy? Well, be helpful then. You owe it to yourself to find the sphere in which you can be most helpful. The writer knows that man and woman should have complementary qualities. Each is incomplete without the other. If both together make up the perfect whole ideal happiness is the result. A young man securing his perfect complementary associate is indeed fortunate. She is his greatest help in life. The writer's greatest need now is such a girl. Please read carefully what the best Phenologist in America said concerning his qualities: "He has excellent health, appreciation of value, executive ability, physical strength and endurance, confidence in action, good intellectuality, dignity and commanding ability, memory and personal ambition, moderate sympathy, reverence, economy and management, prudence and forethought, fair diplomacy, sociability, and friendliness. He is light complexioned, aged twenty-five, and is a methodist. He uses neither tobacco nor liquor." In June he leaves college to manage a large wheat farm in Alberta, Canada, where he has lived for fourteen years. If you think your personal qualities complement his and will co-operate with him to see if they do, please write Ralph S. Thompson, Box 377, Ithaca, New York.

Rall's King Emerald

In offering the public the services of Rall's King Emerald, I do so confident that he is as well bred and as superb an individual as any stallion registered in the American Saddle Horse Breeders' Association. He is by the undefeated show horse, Golden King. The dam of Rall's King Emerald is by Emerald Chief, winner of the World's Fair Prize, St. Louis. His second dam is by Wilson's King, out of a Kentucky Chief mare.

He is a Golden Chestnut, 16 hands high, weighs 1235 pounds and goes beautifully all the gaits. He trots as few horses can trot. He has a natural springy, elastic flat footed walk, which characterizes the Golden Kings. His bone, his substance, his finish will add to the value of any mare mated with him. In breeding to this horse you do not experiment as he has proven himself to be an extra good breeder and sire. Why take chances on untried horses when you can breed to one that has already demonstrated his ability?

He will make the season of 1917 at the above named farm on the Maysville pike 2 1/2 miles from Mt. Sterling, for the reasonable fee of
